DAYTIME CONNECTIONS: AWAKEN SPIRIT, CREATE JUSTICE!

At our next Daytime Connections program on Thursday, March 16, join Rev. Ruth MacKenzie in an exploration of singing, theology, and the role singing plays in spirituality and justice making. We will sing, tell stories, delve into songs of spiritual awakening and resistance, and create our own song to buoy and enliven our hearts. Program begins at 11 a.m., followed by lunch at 1 p.m. A $5-10 donation is encouraged. Registration is requested for lunch planning: contact Sandy DiNanni at sandy@firstuniv.org or 612-825-1701.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS FOR LEADERSHIP POSITIONS

The Nominating Committee is recruiting candidates for leadership positions on the Board of Trustees, the Foundation Board, and the Nominating Committee itself for the next church year. We encourage members to step forward and share their skills! The application deadline is April 1, and elections occur at the Annual Meeting in June. Position descriptions and application can be found at firstuniversalistchurch.org.

CONTEMPLATIVE EVENING WORSHIP MARCH 26

"Kinds of Light: SKY" is the fourth and final service in our 2016-17 Contemplative Evening Worship Series. Light divides our world into two hemispheres: land and sky. The one is where we live and work; the other represents our hopes, our aspirations, our dreams. The second illuminates the first, just as the dreams we have at night illuminate our waking life. What happens when we build a bridge between them? We'll explore these themes through the piano trio Ladders to the Sky, by Gwyneth Walker, as well as piano music by Gareth Farr and John Psathas, with the help of violinist Ginna Watson and cellist Corey Grossman. Please join Rev. Ruth MacKenzie and Dr. Jerrod Wendland on Sunday, March 26, at 5:30 p.m. in the sanctuary for a meditative hour of music and poetry for opening the heart and deepening the spirit.

A GOOD TIME FOR THE TRUTH: RACE IN MINNESOTA BOOK DISCUSSION

In this provocative book, sixteen Minnesota writers provide a range of perspectives on what it is like to live as a person of color in Minnesota. They bring us generously into experiences that we must understand if we are to come together in real relationships. Join us for a drop-in book discussion on March 16 at 7 p.m.

SENIOR HIKE WITH DAYTIME CONNECTIONS

Join us for our next senior hike with Daytime Connections! Gather at 10 a.m. on Thursday, March 23 at the Dunn Brothers Coffee located at the west end of the Lake St./Marshall Ave. Bridge. It is about a 1.5-hour hike and offers stunning views upstream to downtown Minneapolis and the Mississippi River canyon downstream. RSVP to Tom Saterstrom (952-239-3629 or saterstromtom@yahoo.com).

Spirit of Life

Spirit of life, come unto me,
Sing in my heart all the stirrings of compassion
Blow in the wind, rise in the sea:
Move in the hand, giving life the shape of justice.
Roots hold me close. Wings set me free.
Spirit of Life, come to me. Come to me.

Offering: Honor the Earth

Honor the Earth's mission is to create awareness and support for Native environmental issues and to develop needed financial and political resources for the survival of sustainable Native communities. Honor the Earth develops these resources by using music, the arts, the media, and Indigenous wisdom to ask people to recognize our joint dependency on the Earth and be a voice for those not heard. Most recently Honor the Earth hosted a celebration of the subsistence lifestyle of several Native American peoples, culminating in a horseback tour of the Native communities that would be devastated by the proposed Enbridge pipeline. Honor the Earth, in partnership with members of the local communities, organized the tour, with educational and outreach presentations on the pipeline proposals and ways for community members to get involved. Honor the Earth focuses on education and organizing against extreme extraction, regranting to support small grassroots Native groups protecting sacred sites and cultural traditions, renewable energy development on tribal land, and community-based food sovereignty.

March Worship Theme: Risk

Risk is a dance with danger. It is stepping into a moment, unsure of what lies ahead. We may enter risk of our own accord or be pushed into risk-taking by life circumstances. Risk stands on the precipice of a failed attempt, a generative opening, or maybe a little of both. Whether we are comfortable with risk-taking or not, it is central to a whole and thriving life. There is no way to avoid it. In this month, we explore the nature of risk, and the spiritual muscles we need to develop in order to meet it.
