Not for Ourselves Alone:
Building an Inclusive Future
First Universalist Church Capital Campaign

CAPITAL CAMPAIGN UPDATE: $3,873,097

Thank you to all those who have generously given as of April 12! Thus far, we have received $3,873,097 in pledges from members toward our capital campaign, Not for Ourselves Alone, Building an Inclusive Future. We look forward to meeting with all First Universalist members and friends this spring to discuss our vision for the future of our church!

DAYTIME CONNECTIONS: RESILIENCE

Given the increasing uncertainties, losses, and challenges of aging, how can you be resilient? Drawing on her research related to family resilience, Joan Patterson will guide us through an exploration of resilience—what it means, who has it, how they got it and most of all, how YOU can tap your own capacity for resilience—at our April Daytime Connections program on Thursday, April 20. Program begins at 11 a.m., followed by lunch at 1 p.m. A $5-10 donation is encouraged. RSVP to Sandy at 612-825-1701 or sandy@firstuniv.org.

RACIAL JUSTICE AND OUR UU FAITH WORKSHOP

Join us for a workshop exploring a framework and tools for understanding race, racism, and whiteness and the spiritual imperative that drives our racial justice work. This is a two-part workshop offered on Saturdays, April 22 & 29, from 9–11:30 a.m. To register, contact Sandy at sandy@firstuniv.org or 612-825-1701.

APRIL 30 WORSHIP:

#UUWHITE SUPREMACY TEACH IN

On Sunday, April 30, First Universalist will join more than 400 Unitarian Universalist congregations/communities in shifting our regularly scheduled Sunday morning worship to participate in a teach-in on racism and white supremacy, known as #UUWhiteSupremacyTeachIn. This call to action comes from a growing network led by UUs of color and white UUs working together. Our youth-friendly worship services will take place as scheduled – on Sunday, April 30 at 9:30 and 11:15 a.m. – and will take the form of a worshipful teach-in with special guest performers and speakers.

RSVP NOW FOR PLEDGE DAY ON APRIL 26

The Pledge Day tradition continues! Please join us on Wednesday, April 26, 4-8 p.m. at church for a free celebration of our community, including dinner catered by The Sioux Chef, bingo for all ages, a bouncy house, prizes, and more. Our goal is to have all pledges made by Pledge Day so that the budget for the coming year can be finalized. RSVP: <http://tinyurl.com/PledgeDay2017RSVP>

CONGREGATIONAL BUDGET MEETINGS

The Board of Trustees will share a draft budget with the congregation at meetings on Sunday, April 30 at 12:30 p.m. in the Sanctuary and Tuesday, May 2 at 6:30 p.m. in the Cummins Room. After a presentation of the budget and its rationale, there will be an opportunity for questions. The board will prepare a final version of the budget for presentation at our Annual Meeting on Sunday, June 4 at 11:30 a.m.

Additionally, TCHFH repairs 140 homes each year through the A Brush with Kindness program and has served more than 5,000 local homeowners through the Mortgage Foreclosure Prevention Program. ## April Worship Theme: Transformation

Karen Armstrong writes: "religion is not about accepting twenty impossible propositions before breakfast, but about doing things that change you. It is a moral aesthetic, an ethical alchemy. If you behave in a certain way, you will be transformed." When we dare to move beyond the known patterns and perceptions of our lives, letting the alchemy of love, listening and justice do its work, then we will be more than changed. The base metals of our lives will be transformed into something precious and flourishing. This is the purpose of religion, and the meaning of a religious life: to be transformed.
