We welcome, affirm, and protect the light in each human heart; we listen deeply to where love is calling us next; and we act with humility, bravery, and compassion in service to justice. We do all this as a faith community committed to racial justice. These spiritual practices and commitments are the ways we move in rhythm with the great love that is alive in the world.

Offering: Marnita's Table (Holiday Giving Recipient)

Marnita's Table seeks to close gaps across difference through making Intentional Social Interaction the new pattern for society where people of color, the disenfranchised, the poor, the unheard, the fragile, the LGBTQ+ and anyone who is normally left out of community decision making are automatically included and valued at the policy-making and resource-sharing table. This holiday season, we've invited our members and friends to join us in rethinking the meaning of gift-giving by reducing our would-be holiday spending and redirecting what we save to our Holiday Giving recipient, an organization that is working to bring people together across differences and advance racial equity in our community. Today, we gather these contributions during the service so that we might make a collective gift to Marnita's Table. Please enclose your gift in the red envelope provided. If you've already made a gift online, by mail, or in person, or plan to give online today, please add your envelope to the collection basket as well (you're welcome to include a blessing if you wish!). Online gifts can be made at: <https://tinyurl.com/ycyqp24y> or via the Square Cash app (instructions on the back under "Celebrating Our Generosity") Following the service, please join us in the social hall to add a piece of "food" to our display!

Musical Notes by Rev. Ruth MacKenzie

When asked why he chose Ave Rex for today's choir-led Sunday worship service, our Director of Choral Arts, Dr. Randy Buikema replied: "I wanted to push against 'mall' music." Anyone who has heard Ave Rex will attest that it is music that celebrates Christmas with attitude. It is in your face. It will make you sit up and listen. It is refreshing, jubilant, uproarious, complex, and joyful! Welsh composer, William Mathias, has written a sequence of carols using traditional medieval texts, but the harmonies and sonic impact are anything but traditional. Instead, the music reflects a truer reading of the Christmas story and its meaning. Mathias' uproarious harmonies say: this is a story about reversals, a story about dissonance and the world being stood on its head, where single mothers are powerful beyond belief, where wise ones can be found in undocumented travelers, and bravery, adventure, and kindness win.

December Worship Theme: Hope

Barbara Kingsolver writes, "the very least you can do in your life is to figure out what to hope for. And the most you can do is live inside that hope. Not admire it from a distance but live right in it, under its roof." Some of us struggle to find hope. Some of us take hope for granted. Hope is what sends a student to school, an addict to a 12-step program, an activist out into the street. Theologian Julie Neraas writes, "while hope is a strengthening force, it also lays a person open to the vulnerabilities of love, desire, expectation, disappointment, loss." This month we wrestle with hope, what to hope for, with all its complexity, and how to live under its roof.
