Information about circles as well as other adult programming is available online and in Adult Programming Catalogs that are available to pick up outside the sanctuary. Registration for Circles is open online at firstucircles.weebly.com through the end of the day today. You may also sign up today in the Social Hall.

SENIOR HIKE WITH DAYTIME CONNECTIONS

Start 2018 on the right foot and break the cabin fever from our early January arctic cold snap by joining us for our next Senior hike! The group will meet at Long Meadow Lake Unit/Bass Ponds at Minnesota Valley National Wildlife Refuge in Bloomington at 10 a.m. on Thursday, Jan. 25 for a 1.5-2 hour hike. Following the hike, the group will gather at Town Hall Lanes for warmth, sustenance, hydration and convivial conversation. RSVP to Tom (saterstromtom@yahoo.com) if you would like to participate. Details available at firstuniversalistchurch.org.

ANNUAL STATE OF THE CHURCH MEETING FEB. 11

Please join us for our annual State of the Church meeting after the second service on Sunday, Feb. 11 (12:30 p.m.). At this meeting, the Board of Trustees and Staff of the Church will share updates on where we've been and where we're going! We will share a story about the history of our building that was discovered as the Building Team has been working with our architects on building and renovation plans, and lay some groundwork for governance changes the congregation will be asked to approve at our annual meeting in June. And, of course, a high-level mid-year budget update and a look at upcoming programs and events. We have so much to be proud of as a faith community, and big goals still in front of us. Mark your calendar and plan to join us on February 11!

PATHWAY TO MEMBERSHIP CLASS

If First Universalist is feeling like your spiritual home, then we hope you'll take part in the Pathway to Membership! Joining First Universalist is a symbolic, spiritual act of saying "yes" to growing your soul in this place, with these people, within our free faith tradition. This new member class is a great chance to build community, explore Unitarian Universalism and our church's unique history, and learn how to get involved. This class is offered as a two-part series on Tuesdays, Jan. 30 and Feb. 13, from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. Sign up by emailing Sandy at sandy@firstuniv.org or calling 612-825-1701.

Spirit of life, come unto me,
Sing in my heart all the stirrings of compassion

Move in the hand, giving life the shape of justice.

Offering: Beacon Interfaith Housing Collaborative

Beacon Interfaith Housing Collaborative, through its Families Moving Forward program, provides temporary housing for families experiencing homelessness. Over 60 congregations in the Twin Cities rotate on a weekly basis to create shelter space at their sites, providing a safe place to sleep, meals, and the kindness and compassion of the congregation's volunteers. Up to 16 families are provided shelter at one time through four groupings of up to four families each. Completing the circle of support, Beacon's professional staff works closely with each family to address their unique barriers to stability so they may leave the shelter program for permanent housing. Beacon is one of First Universalist's six Faithful Action Community Partners for 2017-18.

About Today's Musical Guest

The Give Get Sistet (www.givegetsistet.com) are our Artists in Residence for 2017/2018. They are collaborating with our worship team to create and curate several services throughout the year, as well as developing a community building project for the spring. The Give Get Sistet is an improvisational chorus of women based in the Twin Cities with ties around the world. These women listen deeply and sing with great generosity and daring. First Universalist is honored to have these fine artists/community builders/activists in our midst.

January Worship Theme: Loving

This month we are inspired by the work of Leslie Barlow, a young artist who has taken the art scene in the Twin Cities by storm. In her series of paintings called, Loving, Ms. Barlow uses the Supreme Court ruling of 1967 against anti-miscegenation (or anti interracial marriage) laws, as the launching pad for her study of family, challenging perceived family normalcy and the lack of representation of diverse family dynamics. Her series invites us into the extraordinary of ordinary love in all different kinds and variety of families. This month we explore Loving. The people we love. The variety of families from which we were born, and the big hearted call to Love found in the very DNA of our family of faith.
