Brunch, Lunch, or Dinner Gatherings

Saturday, August 16 (multiple times and locations)

If you stay put in the Twin Cities over August and are looking for a fun activity, sign up to host or attend a potluck event where you live. We will recruit hosts from across the cities and then open up the events for congregants in their area to join them. Some gatherings will be family focused with space for children as well as adults, while others may be for young adults/adults only. Gatherings are about coming together—nothing fancy—just a time to enjoy each other's company and create community outside of church. If you are interested in hosting let us know.

Newcomers Circle is not a replacement or prerequisite for the Membership Class- they are complimentary curriculums that may be done in any order.

FAITHFUL ACTION

Environmental Justice Gathering: Responding to the Climate Crisis-Next Steps

DATE TBD - includes lunch, Cummins Room | Here

Getting to Zero Waste in Hennepin County

Wednesday, June 25, Dinner 5:15-5:45; event 6-7:30 p.m. at church, Room 209 | RSVP Here

Do you wonder what a zero waste future could look like? Part of a zero waste future includes the immediate closure of the Hennepin Energy Recovery Center (aka the HERC). Trash incineration is no longer a viable solution for our waste, and it is an environmental justice issue, as the burning of our trash at the HERC most negatively impacts our Black neighbors and other marginalized beloveds in North (and Northeast) Minneapolis. Please join Emily Wallace and Todd Pierson, and bring your questions about how waste is processed, and why the HERC is not "clean energy." Solving the problem of our waste is multi-faceted, and we will discuss the county's plan as well as what we as a faith community that cares for all our planet can do.

Since their first film, Food Inc., multinational corporations have created a highly efficient yet shockingly vulnerable food system dedicated only towards increasing profits that has robbed workers of a fair living wage and contributed to the global proliferation of ultra-processed foods along with a chemically formulated international health crisis. Food Inc 2 features innovative farmers, future-thinking food producers, workers' rights activists and prominent legislators Senator Cory Booker and Senator Jon Tester who are facing these companies head on to inspire change and build a healthier, more sustainable future.

Spring Forest Qigong is liberating because it shows a way to return to who we have always been - energy beings, who, when given the space and time to heal, can bring more unconditional love, forgiveness, and kindness to ourselves, each other, and a hurting world. Movements are gentle and accessible and can be done standing, sitting, or lying down. Facilitated by Denise Konen.

Nimona: Movie Night for Trans and Gender Expansive Folx

Saturday, June 7, 6:30 pm, Cummins Room | RSVP Here

Unwind for the start of the summer and join us for a night at the movies! We will be showing the movie Nimona (PG). Nimona is an animated movie about an aspiring villain with great abilities, including shapeshifting and creativity. The Geeky Waffle says, "It's incredibly refreshing to have this unique, beautiful, heartfelt movie that smashes the norm. It is setting a new bar for what should be seen in an animated film and how to create thoughtful and needed queer content."

We hope you can join us for this community building event that is explicitly for trans and gender expansive folx. It is not for cis allies except parents and siblings of trans and gender expansive children and youth. Please spread the invitation widely: church membership is not required for attendance.

My Parents Think They Are Wizards (Or Something)

6/8, 6/15, 6/22, 6/29, 7/6, 7/13, 7/20, 7/27, 12-4 p.m. at church, Rooms 205 & 207 | RSVP Here

A place where kids can play pretend with other kids, and grownups can play pretend with other grownups. In one space, children enjoy a (supervised) playdate with other First U children. In another space, grownups enjoy a game that involves imagination, roleplay, and collaborative storytelling (and yes, most likely dice). Because everybody likes games, but different ages can have different needs, goals, and ways to play.

Kate Tucker Sermon Circles

Circle 2: Sundays, June 29, July 13 & 27, August 10 & 24, 7-8:45 p.m. on Zoom

RSVP Here for Circle 2

You are invited to five sessions of diving deeply into five Kate Tucker sermons, meeting every other week. Registration is open to all ages from twenty-somethings to seniors, whether or not you have personally experienced our beloved minister emerita's extraordinary sermons before. Kate's sermons have aged very well, because they delve into timeless yearnings and wisdom. Please join us in a commitment to personal and communal spiritual growth. When you register, please indicate whether you are available for either or both of the circles. They are limited to ten participants apiece, and your flexibility might allow an opening for another person to participate. Let's not allow the perfect to become the enemy of the good; you are encouraged to register even if you have reason to believe that you will miss one, but not two, of the five sessions.

Summer Instrumental Music

Imagine: a drop-in space where you come with a project, or use materials from our pop-up free table (i.e., a spot where we can bring craft items we no longer want or need, to pass to someone else, or to find a new project or hobby). Joy is an act of resistance and connecting with creative folks can be inspiring!

Book Study | See Me, Believe Me: A Guide to Deepen Allyship with Congregational Leaders of Color

Sundays, July 13, 20, 27, from 12 pm to 1:15 pm, via Zoom | RSVP Here

Join a group to read and discuss See Me, Believe Me: A Guide to Deepen Allyship with Congregational Leaders of Color by Rev. Dr. Yolanda Denson-Byers. The book is short, and we will meet three times via Zoom to discuss. An excerpt of the book's description: In See Me, Believe Me, Rev. Dr. Yolanda Denson-Byers draws from the wisdom and experience she has gained—and the racism she has endured—as a female, Black, and queer pastor in the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA). Her insights and concrete suggestions for action illustrate how seeing and believing leaders of color are essential steps in the journey of allyship. Chapters beckon readers to acknowledge ignorance, respect boundaries, join in celebration and lament, offer reparations, and continue doing their own work to dismantle racism and live into the fullness of loving God and neighbor. Facilitated by Dallas Rising and Nan Potter.

SENIORS

Improv for Elders

Wednesdays, 10:00-11:30, ongoing, in person at church, Room 209 | Register Here

Improvisation is not only a fun activity, with lots of laughter and joy and connection with others, it is also a resilience-building activity, and a spiritual practice. Participants say that the class makes them more aware of the ways they can open to more joy and spontaneity outside of class as well as within. This class is not about performing or public practice of improv. It is a nonjudgmental, supportive environment for group activities. New members are always welcome to come by and try it! Facilitated by Rev. Meg Riley.
