VISITORS AND NEWCOMERS/NEW-ISH

A Place to Start

1st and 3rd Sundays, Immediately after worship services, meets at the front of the sanctuary

Are you new or new-ish to First Universalist and wondering where to begin? Here's "A Place to Start!" Whether you're simply curious or are considering making this your spiritual home, in this casual, 45-minute class, you'll learn some of the basics of Unitarian Universalism, as well as how to get connected to what you're seeking here at church. Meet at the front of the sanctuary immediately after the service on a first or third Sunday. No RSVP necessary.

NEW! November Newcomers Circle

Mondays, Nov. 3, 10, 17, 24, 6:00 pm potluck, 6:30-8:00 circle | Registration Closed/Class Full

Newcomers Circles create a rich, supportive environment in which to share and engage our emerging UU values, theology, identity, and sense of belonging. This 4-session gathering is a caring and structured group to dig deeper into Unitarian Universalism and further connection at church. This Circle is intended for members and non-members alike who are discerning if and/or how they will commit to and continue their spiritual journey at First U as Unitarian Universalists. Please plan to attend at least three of the four sessions. The first session is required.

Membership at First U

We ask that congregants who are interested in becoming members take the Membership Class. In two sessions, participants have an opportunity to get clear on what they personally are committing to as church members and what a mutual, reciprocal church community commits to them in return. In community, participants explore the practical and spiritual sides of what relevant, sustainable church membership means to them. Even if you're a lifelong UU interested in membership, we ask that you take the membership class at First Universalist as it helps orient folks to this congregation and helps build community.

We are offering three different membership class times this fall:

Thursday, Oct 30 and Thursday, Nov 13, 6:00-8:00 pm

Tuesday, Nov 11 and Tuesday, Nov 18, 6:00-8:00 pm

Saturday, Dec 13, 9:00am-1:30 pm \(potluck\)

RSVP Here to attend in person at First U

RSVP Here to watch via Zoom from home

This three-session course offers an introduction to gender diversity and trans identity and equips you to respond to the current political attack on trans people. Content includes trans 101, vital information to counter rampant anti-trans propaganda, and concrete actions that are needed for congregations and community groups to be spaces of safety and belonging to trans people and our families in this moment. We'll also be discussing what you can do to support trans refugee work in Minnesota. We start each session with a 25- to 35-minute video provided by the Transforming Hearts Collective. It will be followed by a discussion on the content and time for questions, facilitated by Dallas Rising (she/they), MUUSJA's Senior Movement Organizer and First U Member. This is an excellent opportunity to connect with other UUs in MUUSJA's network as well as community groups as we work together to respond to the anti-trans movement in impactful and compassionate ways. In-person gathering facilitated by Allison Wonchoba (MUUSJA Congregational Connector) and Zelia Gonzales (First U Young Adult Group)

Zero Waste/Closing the HERC

Monday, December 8th, 7-8pm

Virtual via zoom RSVP Here

Do you know where your trash goes when you throw it "away"? It's likely that it goes to the Hennepin Energy Recovery Center (aka the HERC). That is the trash incinerator that is located in North Minneapolis near the Target Center. The Hennepin County Commissioners passed a resolution in October 2023 to create a comprehensive plan to close the HERC permanently and implement a "zero waste" plan for Hennepin county residents. This is possible, and we can all be part of it. Come and learn about the timeline for the HERC closure and what you can do to help promote a zero waste future after the HERC is shut down. Facilitated by Emily Wallace and Todd Pierson.

ARTS & SPIRITUAL PRACTICE GATHERINGS

Under Northern Skies Women's Ritual Group

Sun, Sept 7 Full Moon in Pisces • Sun, Sept 21 New Moon in Virgo • Mon, Oct 6 Full Moon in Aries • Tue, Oct 21 New Moon in Libra, 7:30-8:30pm RSVP Here

Under Northern Skies rituals are open to all women (cis and trans) and non-binary people who find their homes in women-centric spaces. Our group is restricted to people 18 years of age and older, women with many different life experiences, backgrounds, and belief systems come together to change, grow, and celebrate the Divine in each other through earth centered ritual. The gathering dates are every new and full moon using the We'Moon calendar. One does not have to espouse any religion or philosophy or believe in any particular deity or deities to participate in the group and derive meaning from its activities. All one needs is a desire to live in a way that acknowledges the cycles of life and nature, and to grow spiritually and personally alongside a mutually supportive group. There is not a permanent group leader. Volunteers take turns to design, guide, and direct the new and full moon rituals. The date's astrological aspects may guide the topics and themes rituals explore. Rituals also draw inspiration and meaning found in many other earth centered practices and beliefs. Wed, Nov 5 Full Moon in Taurus is the commitment ceremony. The group will then close to new members until next fall. This allows for building a beloved ritual community. Facilitated by Jane Jordan and Hannah Mitchel.

Qigong for Liberation

Tuesdays, September 23, 30, October 7, 14, 21, 28, Nov. 4, 11, 18, 25, Dec. 2, 9, 16, (No practice Dec. 23) Dec. 30, 4:30-5:15pm (zoom and in person) RSVP Here

We gather in person, and on Zoom in the snowy months, to practice the beautiful and healing moving meditation of Spring Forest Qigong created by Master Chunyi Lin, who notes, "by harmonizing Qi, the body's vital energy, Qigong supports physical vitality, emotional balance, and spiritual growth." Spring Forest Qigong is liberating because it shows a way to return to who we have always been - energy beings, who, when given the space and time to heal, can bring more unconditional love, forgiveness, and kindness to ourselves, each other, and a hurting world. Movements are gentle and accessible and can be done standing, sitting, or lying down. Facilitated by Denise Konen.

Common Ground Sundays

About once a month over holiday weekends and/or school breaks, we will host a program for all grade levels (kindergarten through high school) called Common Ground Sundays. These Sundays are intended to gather and ground our children and youth in a shared project of liberation, resistance, and care for our congregation and our wider community.

Each Common Ground Sunday will include a mix of:

- brief opening ritual
- multiple relevant hands-on projects options (with multiple learning styles and development ranges reflected)
- representation from a First Universalist committee, ministry, or justice team
- resources from local community organizations
- connections to our monthly worship theme

We hope these Common Ground Sundays will be meaningful opportunities for our children, youth, and adults to forge relationships across age and generational divides, to identify and generate leadership opportunities for our children and youth within the life of the congregation, and to continue cultivating shared experience, wisdom, and compassion within our church community at large.

This program will be in lieu of our regular RE programs, and will follow each of our two regular service times—like all other Sundays at 9:00 am and 11:00 am.

Improv for Elders - Fall 2025

Wednesdays, beginning September 24, 10:00-11:30, ongoing, in person at church

RSVP Here (Past participants: please re-register so that the facilitator has a complete roster)

Improvisation is not only a fun activity, with lots of laughter and joy and connection with others. It is also a resilience-building activity, and a spiritual practice. Participants say that the class makes them more aware of the ways they can open to more joy and spontaneity outside of class as well as within. This class is not about performing or public practice of improv. It is a nonjudgmental, supportive environment for group activities. New members are always welcome to come by and try it! Facilitated by Rev. Meg Riley.
