We always offer vegan, vegetarian, gluten free, nut free and kid-friendly options. All church events are alcohol-free. Instead of breakout groups after the May dinner, please join our 9th grade Coming of Age youth, mentors, and Advisors in the Sanctuary where they will share their COA 'Zine. The 'Zine will be a collection of our youth's learning, processing, and overall experiencing as part of COA. The celebration will include short essays, poems, drawings, and creations from others that have inspired the COA youth.

We will eat, have a short program, and then create breakout groups. This breakfast is open to transgender and gender expansive kids, youth, and adults, and to cisgender allies who are parents and siblings of trans and gender expansive children and youth. Otherwise, cisgender folks are not invited to the breakfast. However, they can be allies by spreading the word about the breakfast to trans and gender expansive loved ones in their lives and encouraging them to come! Please spread the invitation widely: church membership is not required for attendance.

Sign up for dinners will happen at church and through a link in The Liberal.

VISITORS AND NEWCOMERS/NEW-ISH

Membership Classes at First U

We ask that congregants who are interested in becoming members take a membership class. Participants have an opportunity to get clear on what they personally are committing to as church members and what a mutual, reciprocal church community commits to them in return. In community, participants explore the practical and spiritual sides of what relevant, sustainable church membership means to them. Even if you're a lifelong UU interested in membership, we ask that you take the membership class at First Universalist as it helps orient folks to this congregation and helps build community.

We are offering three different membership class times this spring:

NEW DATES - Class 1: Thursdays, February 19 and 26, 6:00-8:00 pm, Room 209 RSVP

Our BIPOC communities bear the heaviest burden of plastic pollution.

Join together with the Environmental Justice Team and support each other's journey toward zero waste. Choose from over 100 engaging actions available through an easy and fun online portal. Thursday, April 23, 7-8:15 p.m., Cummins Room | RSVP Here

Director Damon Gameau (2040, THAT SUGAR FILM) invites eight children on an epic adventure across Europe in a school bus powered by biofuel. Their mission is to better understand the planet's predicament, explore solutions and, most importantly, take the conversation from the streets, into the boardrooms of some of the world's largest polluters and influential companies. This inspiring and rollicking journey results in the children forming a 'Future Council' to advise and influence the world's most powerful companies on their decisions that impact nature. It is a coming-of-age journey that dares to imagine a brighter future.

Qigong for Liberation

Tuesdays, 4:30 - 5:15 online, facilitator will keep participants informed of any dates we don't meet | RSVP Here

We gather in person in good weather and on Zoom in the snowy months, to practice the beautiful and healing movement meditation of Spring Forest Qigong created by Master Chunyi Lin, who notes, "by harmonizing Qi, the body's vital energy, Qigong supports physical vitality, emotional balance, and spiritual growth." Come when you can. A recording is included each week so, if you can't attend in real time, you can practice when you choose. Movements are gentle and accessible and can be done standing, sitting, or lying down. Spring Forest Qigong is a liberating practice because it provides a way to return to who we have always been—energy beings, who, when given the space and time to heal, can bring more unconditional love, forgiveness, and kindness to ourselves, each other, and a hurting world. As our strength and resilience grow we become fortified to respond with courage and compassion to the intensifying fascism. Facilitator will reach out when you register so that you can get to know one another and she can better understand your needs for your qigong practice. Facilitated by Denise Konen.

Middle School and High School Youth Groups

Youth in 6th-8th grades are invited to join our Middle School Youth Group, which meets twice a month from 7-8:15 p.m. on most second and fourth Wednesdays (the second Wednesday is immediately following Community Dinners).

There is no membership requirement or Sunday morning attendance requirement. Bring a friend or a neighbor—all are welcome!

Common Ground Sundays

About once a month over holiday weekends and/or school breaks, we will host a program for all grade levels (kindergarten through high school) called Common Ground Sundays. These Sundays are intended to gather and ground our children and youth in a shared project of liberation, resistance, and care for our congregation and our wider community.

Each Common Ground Sunday will include a mix of:

- brief opening ritual
- multiple relevant hands-on projects options (with multiple learning styles and development ranges reflected)
- representation from a First Universalist committee, ministry, or justice team
- resources from local community organizations
- connections to our monthly worship theme

We hope these Common Ground Sundays will be meaningful opportunities for our children, youth, and adults to forge relationships across age and generational divides, to identify and generate leadership opportunities for our children and youth within the life of the congregation, and to continue cultivating shared experience, wisdom, and compassion within our church community at large.

This program will be in lieu of our regular RE programs, and will follow each of our two regular service times—like all other Sundays at 9:00 am and 11:00 am.

Common Ground Sundays for the 2025-26 church year:

- February 15th (Sunday before Presidents' Day)
- NO March Date
- April 5th (Easter Sunday/Spring Break)

All single and solo parents and caregivers are invited to join this group for community, connection, and solidarity with people who really get it. This will be a space for connecting with others who have shared experience, taking time for a spiritual practice or reflection, and receiving care, tenderness, and grace from one another. We are scheduling these during Community Dinner and Saturday morning Sprouts so childcare will be available. We encourage you to attend as many of these gatherings as you can to support trust-building and community. Reach out to Rev. Laura with questions or for more information. Groups will be facilitated by affiliated ministers, current ministers, and staff.

Child Dedication Sunday

April 12, 2026

Child Dedications take place twice each year during a Sunday morning worship service. Child Dedication is a beloved ritual of our congregation and many UU congregations. In Child Dedication, our congregation pledges itself to partner with parents and families in the religious upbringing of their children. We promise to support the family as their child grows. Child Dedication is a community event, honoring an intentional and ongoing relationship between families and our religious community. ## SMALL GROUPS, BOOK GROUPS & CLASSES FOR ADULTS

BIPOC Group

Fill out the interest form or email Nico (nico@firstuniv.org) for meeting details; in person and online available.

The First Universalist BIPOC Group is a sacred time of community, support, and joy. Come be, laugh, and connect with other Unitarian Universalists who identify as Black, Indigenous, and/or people of color. This is a closed space for BIPOC adults, including multiracial people. This is not a group for white people, including white people who have BIPOC family members.

Get to know the Intercultural Development Continuum

Wednesday evenings: February 11 & 25, March 4 & 18, April 1, 7pm - 8:30pm at church | RSVP Here

For members who are interested in learning more about the culture and its connection to creating a beloved community. Participants need to have completed the IDI (Intercultural Development Inventory). This group will use the UU Institute's "Co-Creating Diversity, Inclusion, and Equity in Our Congregations" course to dig deeper into understanding how we interact across differences in a way that promotes diversity, inclusion and equity in our congregation that builds deep relationships and an inviting congregational culture. Over five sessions, we'll explore the Intercultural Development Continuum and reflect on our congregational culture and experience. Facilitated by Martha Moriarty.

Embracing the Contradictions of Life - A Daytime Bookgroup and Conversation

Wednesdays, Feb 18, March 4 & 18, and April 1, 11:00 am-12:30 pm, at church, Room 201 | RSVP Here

We will be using the book Between the Dark and the Daylight: Embracing the Contradictions of Life by Joan Chittister to guide a facilitated small group. We will meet for four sessions and read around 40 small pages each time. Topics range from the mirage of security to the sanity of irrationality. Chittister is a progressive, Benedictine so the book uses Christian language that is very open and affirming. Facilitated by Rev. Laura Smidzik

Building Trust, Enhancing Belonging

Saturdays. Feb 28, Mar 7, Mar 14, 28, 10-11:30 a.m., at church, Room 207 | *Cancelled

Communities and Countries are held together by trusting relationships. But we often taken them for granted until we are betrayed. Why is trust so important to our lives? Trust is a psychological, practical, and moral concept that we run into every day. How can we strengthen our relationships and repair those that are 'broken'? Why does it feel so awful when others don't trust us? This program will be a discussion, informed by ideas we've listened to/read to nudge us to puzzle things out and consider different people's views together. Facilitated by Nancy Potter.

Connecting with meaning in uncertain times

Sundays, April 5, 12, 19, and 26, 2:00-3:30, at church | RSVP Here

This group will focus on connecting with sources of meaning in these times of uncertainty using a model based on "Man's Search for Meaning" by Viktor Frankl. Together, we will use structured questions and self reflection to identify how we can face these uncertain and painful times in ways that feel grounded in our values and sense of meaning; While we cannot control the limitations that we face in our lives, we have autonomy in how we respond. Facilitator Rachel Bialostosky is a licensed independent clinical social worker who is trained in Meaning Centered Psychotherapy for individuals living with serious illness and this group will be based on that format.

Beyond Philanthropy: What does sharing financial resources look like for you?

Tuesdays, April 14, 21, 28, and May 12,19; 7:00 to 8:45 p.m. at church, Room 207 | RSVP Here

This is a group for folks who wrestle with questions of money, wealth, sharing resources and our work of creating the world we want to live in. This topic can evoke discomfort, guilt or shame, comparison and irritation with donation culture. What if we started with gratitude to explore just how we want to relate to our resources? This group will begin with gratitude and use story, spiritual and embodiment practices, and deep listening to ask (with open, honest hearts) what it means to have more than we need, what is wrong with donation culture, are there other models for sharing and what is my personal sharing compass. One session will be devoted to church stewardship. Facilitated by Karen Heegaard and Drew Rosielle.

Beyond the Gender Binary

Saturdays, May 9, 16, 23 and June 6, 10-11 am, at church, Room 201 | RSVP Here

Cat Hammond and Forrest Mainville invite you to listen to our gender stories and share yours. We will discuss the impact of dismantling the gender binary and offer an exercise to see the world with more fluidity, movement and spaciousness. Together, we will consider ways that gender and sexuality intersect and diverge, reflecting on gender diversity's place within the past and present of LGBTQ communities. In our last class, we will discuss ways to support trans and gender expansive people and to celebrate and embrace all of our gender identities.
